Usher Ministry: As we reenter into worshipping together in the sanctuary, your help as an usher is needed. Please direct your questions to Marilyn Pennoyer.

HopeHomes Housing LLC is a 2.5yo ministry of Hope Avenue that provides transitional housing for men coming out of homelessness. The house in North Minneapolis is being sold and the men are relocating. We are confident that the Lord will provide in the future another house with which to bless our Hope Avenue friends. We would welcome your help cleaning the house as we vacate it:

Saturday, May 1, anytime from 9a-5p. We also have some furniture available as you have need. Please connect with Pastor Becky for more information.

Help Wanted: Elim has an administrative position for 15 hours per week available in the church office this Spring. Applicants must have strong computer skills and be detail-oriented. You may stop by or call the office for an application.

“Thank you to all who sent cards, the prayers, memorials, and for all the support and kindness shown following the death of our son and brother. Thanks to the Pastoral Staff for the beautiful Celebration of Life service and flowers.” Bonita Johnson and Family of Jesse Johnson.

Baby Hernick is now in our arms!

He doesn't have a name yet, but here's what we do know about him:

Born at 3:18 am on April 8

8lb. 10 oz. and almost 22" long

Round, sweet little face

Broad shoulders and a head of dark hair

We are so very thankful for all your prayers of intercession for us! We are all well and resting at home.

With love, Matt and Erin Hernick, Eliza, Abel, Simeon, and ?

Prayerful Pause

“If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” Romans 10:9
